

WFWO, Partners to Launch Youth Support Facility

Rome, 10 June 2011: The World For World Organization (WFWO) NGO international and the Italian Association of Youth Hostels on Friday signed a partnership agreement for mutual cooperation in various fields to contribute to the Millennium Development Goals objectives.

The partnership of the parties will move forward to contribute to the Youth activities at all levels nationally and internationally, in accordance with the vision and objectives by all to provide excellent social services based on the principle of participation and cooperation to guarantee progress and prosperity to Youth issues, and to support and strengthen the relations and achieve common interests.

Sidi Cherif, WFWO, said the agreement aims to establish special relations between the two sides and enhance mutual understanding, exchange of ideas and knowledge between the two institutions. Through the agreement both the sides aim to achieve their strategy, vision and general objectives relating to social welfare for Youth to improve the concepts of social inclusion, cooperation, participation and solidarity, as well as integration of roles in some joint programs to ensure comprehensive care of Youth and their advancement, dissemination of sports culture and services its importance and its impact on health and to raise public awareness focusing on Youth Girls and Boys in general, They will also support the efforts for the care of the disabled and find ways to provide better services to them.

Anita Baldi, AIG, said will cooperate in the field of tourism, hostel for youth facilities and information technology and its uses, and the exchange best practices and experiences in the field of special event, such as the internet corner area for free to all Youth in all region of Italy in media and public relations, and participate in training programs, workshops, conferences and various seminars carried out by both the parties, and exchange experiences in strategic planning and corporate excellence in the field of sports and youth welfare, and cooperate in enhancing the work, programs and activities in Youth, and exchange information, data, statistics and studies in the areas of youth activities.

A coordinator will be selected by both the parties to follow up and implement the overall objectives of the partnership agreement and assess the performance of services exchanged between the parties and find solutions to any obstacles encountered in the implementation and propose plans to activate the partnership to contribute to the Youth and the Eight Millennium Development Goals Objectives.

For more information please contact:
WFWO's Communications Team
E-mail: info@worldforworld.org